

Declaration of Compliance with RoHS Directive (2011/65/EU and amendments)

Dear Customer,

Delta Elettronica Srl, in its capacity as a distributor of electronic components, hereby declares the following with reference to the RoHS Directive 2011/65/EU (RoHS II), as amended by Directive 2015/863/EU (RoHS III), concerning the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (EEE):

- Delta Elettronica Srl is not the manufacturer of the components it distributes. We rely on qualified suppliers and manufacturers who declare that their products are compliant with the applicable RoHS legislation.
- RoHS compliance information is provided directly by our suppliers through technical documentation and official declarations.
- Upon request, Delta Elettronica Srl can provide copies of the declarations of conformity issued by the original manufacturers.
- Should there be any changes regarding product compliance, Delta Elettronica Srl is committed to promptly informing its customers.

We remain at your disposal for any further information or clarification.

Best regards,

Delta Elettronica Srl
